

Amendment 1

Across

- 4. in ms. seito's classroom you are allowed to state your opinion in her _____
- 6. cannot limit a newspaper article
- 12. you have the rights to _____ the gov't without getting in trouble
- 13. there is no _____ of having a certain religion
- 16. forbidding something by law
- 17. the congress can not limit a news _____ story

- 18. people are allowed to have _____ meetings discussing the gov't
- 19. you are allowed to form these with others to discuss a cause
- 20. at schools, _____ are allowed to choose pictures they want in it

Down

- 1. the gov't can shorten a person ability to speak
- 2. statement or action expressing disapproval about something
- 3. allows people to complain about the law

- 5. gov't cannot have a law to meet with people
- 7. to organize a set a rules on a permanent basis
- 8. expressing your _____ on an important gov't topic is allowed
- 9. the gov't can not force people to have a certain religion
- 10. there are _____ total amendments
- 11. the gov't can stop meetings if it involves _____
- 14. a protest to a cause
- 15. amendment _____ explain your rights of free speech, religion and the press