

America in the 1950s

Across

5. A new technology form that provides entertainment and information
 10. You can have a date night or a family night out to see the vibrant new movies made with this
 11. A refreshing drink that will bring back your energy and lift up your spirits
 16. Board created by President Truman to prevent Communist roaders from infiltrating our government
 18. A derogatory word used by Beats to reference normal Americans
 19. The last name of a couple guilty of treason and espionage
 20. The senator who brought to light 205 members of the communist party
 21. New technology that allows travel by air, the most stylish way to travel

23. The star of Rebel Without a Cause, she is rumored to be just friends with James Dean and actually prefers the company of her director

24. Two landmark scientific works attempting to redefine American sexuality

Down

1. A company that provides fast services or has many branches in different areas, such as McDonalds
 2. The life of a silly red head getting into trouble with her shenanigans
 3. Another name for someone who works a desk job
 4. You can get inspired by the new moves from the latest airing of this
 6. A vehicle to express yourself with
 7. An instrument used to fill a living space with tunes

8. An instrument used to start the mornings off right with caffeine for energy

9. A Hollywood production that inspires your children to beg and plead for an expensive and exhausting trip

12. The popular fear of communism

13. The little square of office space in which your husband box where your husband may work

14. The defining literary work of the Beat Generation

15. A tool to prepare the family's well balanced breakfast, specifically to cook bread

17. A necessary nightly family gathering

22. Mamie Eisenhower's favorite color and the color that all of your home appliances should be