

American Government- Part 2

Across

- 3. when a voter in an election votes for candidates from different political parties in a single election
- 6. a regularly scheduled local, state, or national election in which voters elect officeholders
- 10. What is PAC?
- 12. members of a party nominate its candidates by direct vote
- 13. a district, as of a city, marked out for governmental or administrative purposes
- 15. the act of nominating or state of being nominated
- 16. a division or district of a city or town, as for administrative or political purposes
- 17. sheet of paper on which a voter marks their vote

18. voters need not meet a test of party membership

- 19. used for selecting political party candidates in a primary election
- 20. a vote cast by a person who, because of absence from usual voting district, illness, or the like, has been permitted to vote by mail

Down

- 1. a political party that has broken away from a larger one
- 2. a system of representative government or organization such that universal and periodic elections take place without reference to political parties
- 4. a second primary between the two leading candidates of the first primary to provide nomination by majority

5. a political party based on feelings of economic discontent

- 7. a political party that argues and promotes legislation for a single issue
- 8. groups of people that hold the same ideas and beliefs about how things are or how should be
- 9. The tendency for a popular political party leader to attract votes for other candidates of the same party in an election.
- 11. a place at or in which votes in an election are cast
- 14. only persons meeting tests of party membership may vote