

American Government

Across

- 2. the job of the executive branch
- 6. a primary election in which voters are not required to declare party affiliation.
- 11. the elected executive head of a state of the US.
- 12. a body of people representing the states of the US, who formally cast votes for the election
- 13. a body of advisers to the president
- 14. the president is given the power to shape policy by asserting some influence over what Congress discusses and what bills it attempts to pass.

- 15. an international agreement, usually regarding routine administrative matters not warranting a formal treaty, made by the executive branch of the US government without ratification by the Senate.

Down

- 1. directive issued by the President of the United States that manages operations of the federal government, and have the force of law
- 3. a yearly address delivered each January by the president of the US to Congress, giving the administration's view of the state of the nation and plans for legislation.

- 4. leader or administrator in charge of managing an organization.
- 5. the privilege, claimed by the president for the executive branch of the US government, of withholding information in the public interest.
- 7. Establishes the executive branch
- 8. a remission of the legal consequences of an offense or conviction.
- 9. a head of state or officer in supreme command of a country's armed forces.
- 10. a primary election in which voters are required to declare party affiliation.

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|--------------|--------------------|---------------------|---------------------|
| Open primary | Electoral College | chief executive | Chief Legislator |
| Governor | cabinet | executive agreement | State of the Union |
| Article2 | enforce laws | closed primary | executive privilege |
| pardon | Commander in chief | executive order | |