

American Literature Terms 1-34

Across

1. The philosophical belief that the way to truth is through experiments and empiricism.
2. prejudice against or in favor of people belonging to a particular social class.
4. vowel in middle of word that repeats.
5. words chosen to produce a rough harsh unpleasant effect
9. Group of writers that were overshadowed by WW2
14. Statement expressing a general Truth
15. the beliefs or principles of a group of English Protestants of the late 16th and 17th centuries who regarded the Reformation of the Church under Elizabeth I as incomplete and sought to simplify and regulate forms of worship. Very Strict.
20. A condition or system in which two or more groups coexist.
24. used to indicate either possession or the omission of letters or numbers
26. The central idea that the story brings
27. Use of Class Dialect and Regionalism

30. a condition or system in which two or more states, groups, principles, sources of authority, etc., coexist.
32. Pen Name

33. repetition of the initial consonant sound

34. self-conscious break with traditional ways of writing

Down

3. Focused on writing with clear, precise of imagery and sharp language
6. Traditional Philosophies dominated literature
7. observation that contains a general truth
8. Age of revolution and rebirth for African American Culture
10. An imaginative prose written to give the reader entertainment and insight.
11. letting the reader draw his or her own conclusions about the character.
12. Mirrors the unaltered realities of life
13. Influenced by romanticism, Platonism, and Kantian philosophy, it taught that divinity pervades all nature and humanity, and its members held progressive views on feminism and communal living. Ralph Waldo Emerson and Henry David Thoreau were central figures.
16. telling the reader exactly what the character was like.
17. a comparison that doesn't use like or as
18. inventive use of conceits with greater emphasis on the spoken verse
19. AN Extreme form of realism which shows individuals limited by environment and heredity.
21. a belief or theory that opinions and actions should be based on reason and knowledge rather than on religious belief or emotional response.
22. Elaborate and long metaphor
23. Use of a Regions specific Dialect
25. where it happened time place and general background
28. placed importance on emotions and individuals
29. words chosen for a soft pleasant effect.
31. A saying that holds a truth in the form of advice.