

American Revolution

Across

- 3. This document talked about what King George did wrong, what a good government should do, and why the colonists wanted freedom from Britain.
- 5. He is the general of the colonist's army.
- 7. freedom
- 8. A written request that the colonists sent to King George, asking for their freedom.
- 9. A change in power or government, this can happen when people revolt against their government.

Word Bank

- Continental Congress
- revolution
- George Washington
- Declaration of Independence

- petition
- Paul Revere
- government

- Lexington and Concord
- liberty
- delegate

- 10. A person who stands in for others. These people were part of the Continental Congress.

Down

- 1. This served as the government of the colonies and this met to write the Declaration of Independence.
- 2. These were the first battles of the American Revolution.
- 4. He's a colonist that overheard British plans and raced through the night to warn the minutemen that the British were coming.
- 6. A group of people who run a country.