

American Revolution Crossword #14

Across

2. To abandon a person, cause, or organization in a way considered disloyal or treacherous.
4. A person who vigorously supports their country and is prepared to defend it against enemies or detractors.
7. A collection of weapons and military equipment stored by a country, person, or group.
10. A written motion adopted by a deliberative body.
14. Income, especially of a company or organization and of a substantial nature.
15. Information, especially of a biased or misleading nature, used to promote or publicize a particular political point of view or cause.
16. An act or means of sealing off a place to prevent goods or people from entering or leaving.
18. Engagement in or the activities involved in war or conflict.
19. A tax or duty to be paid on a particular class of imports or exports.

20. To sign or give formal consent to a treaty, contract, or agreement, making it officially valid.
22. A member of a class of American militiamen who volunteered to be ready for service at minutes notice.
23. An armed ship owned and officered by private individuals holding a government commission and authorized for use in war, especially in the capture of enemy merchant shipping.
24. To withdraw from social or commercial relations with a country, organization or person as a punishment or protest.
25. A surprise attack by people lying in wait in a concealed position.

Down

1. A preliminary or preparatory statement; an introduction.
3. To revoke or annul a law or congressional act.
5. A professional soldier hired to serve in a foreign army.

6. A military force that is raised from the civil population to supplement a regular army in an emergency.
8. A person who remains loyal to the established ruler or government, especially in the face of a revolt. A colonist who supported the British cause.
9. A general increase in prices and fall in the purchasing value of money.
11. A person who believes that war and violence are unjustifiable.
12. A member of a small independent group taking part in irregular fighting, typically against larger regular forces.
13. A formal written request, typically one signed by many people, appealing to authority with respect to a particular cause.
17. A person killed or injured in a war or accident.
21. To enlist someone in the armed forces.