

Ancient Greece 101

Across

- 5. a fight between armies, ships or planes, especially during a war; a violent fight between groups of people
- 9. before the Common Era (before the birth of Christ, when the Christian calendar starts counting years). ___ can be used to give dates in the same way as BC)
- 10. free to govern itself; completely independent
- 13. a set of letters or symbols in a fixed order used for writing a language
- 15. Common Era (the period since the birth of Christ when the Christian calendar starts counting years). ___ can be used to give dates in the same way as AD.
- 16. the art and study of designing buildings

- 19. a large organized group of soldiers who are trained to fight on land
 - 20. a large area of salt water that is part of an ocean or surrounded by land
 - 21. a country considered as an organized political community controlled by one government
 - 22. a building used for religious worship, especially in religions other than Christianity
- Down
- 1. a figure of a person or an animal in stone, metal, etc., usually the same size as in real life or larger
 - 2. the second letter of the Greek alphabet (B, β)
 - 3. a stone or metal model of a person's head, shoulders and chest
 - 4. an international sports festival held every four years in a different country

- 6. connected with ancient Rome or the Roman Empire
- 7. an area that one person, group, animal, etc. considers as their own and defends against others who try to enter it
- 8. belonging to a period of history that is thousands of years in the past
- 11. (especially in the past) an independent state consisting of a city and the area around it (for example, Athens in ancient times)
- 12. a situation in which two or more countries or groups of people fight against each other over a period of time
- 14. the first letter of the Greek alphabet (A, α)
- 17. the main part of the body, not including the head, arms or legs
- 18. the salt water that covers most of the earth's surface and surrounds its continents and islands