

Ancient Near East

Across

2. Images dedicated to the gods.
 5. Babylonian god of air and storms.
 6. Different layers of space within an image.
 10. Who created the first system of writing cuneiform?
 14. Many gods and goddess
 17. Goddess of love, sensuality, fertility and procreation.
 19. Invention of Sumerians.
 21. Instrument used for writing and printmaking which makes a delicate line scratch.
 24. Maintain the relation between the gods and the Sumerians.
 25. North neighbor of the Sumerians.
 26. Accumulated debris of generations of human habitation.

28. The earliest example of written law.
 29. One example of Art of the Ancient Near East.
 30. Region centered between the Tigris and Euphrates rivers and located in what is now Iraq and Eastern Syria.

Down

1. Standing stone used in the ancient world as grave marker for dedication, commemoration and demarcation.
 3. Material used to make the Stele of Hammurabi.
 4. Paraphrase of Hammurabi law.
 7. Process to duplicate a metal sculpture from its original sculpture.
 8. Earliest form of writing.
 9. Part of Hammurabi code that ensure a stable good rule.
 11. Traditional way of representing forms that were important in Sumerian Art.

12. Type of source of the code of Hammurabi
 13. Collective name for several gods of the Underworld.
 15. Upright stone pillar usually as a primitive commemoration or gravestone.
 16. Symbol representing a vocal sound.
 18. Hammurabi code parts of every phase of life and punishments for breaking the law.
 20. Geographical region that included the modern political states of Turkey, Syria, Jordan, Israel, Iraq and Iran.
 22. Two large complexes temples.
 23. The most impressive surviving archeological, meeting place for humans and their gods.
 27. Part of the Hammurabi code explaining his achievements

Word Bank

Babylonian	Uruk	Phonogram	Ziggurat	Wagon Wheel and Plow
Polytheism	Tepe/huyuk	Laws	Votives	Convention
Illil	Lost wax casting	Diorite	Stele	Pictograph
Prologue	Epilogue	Priests	Mesopotamia	Anunaki
Stele of Hammurabi	Inanna	Ancient Near East	Obelisk	Register
Akkadians	Cuneiform	Stylus	Eye for Eye	Summerians