

Name: _____

Date: _____

Ancient Rome

Across

3. One of the common people. They included craft workers, merchants, soldiers, and more.

8. A charm worn for protection. When a girl gets married, she goes by her husband's name.

9. A follower of a teacher or leader. Jesus has a special group of followers.

11. A person who takes complete charge of a government. Julius Caesar was a famous general.

12. A letter. I have a lot of letters to help me.

13. A structure made for bringing water from one place to another. The Romans had a lot of supplies for water.

Down

1. A person who is being accused. The person was accused for stealing.

2. A form of government that allows citizens to choose representatives to rule. Rome was led by two top officials called consuls.

4. A loose garment to wear in public. The meetings are for the senate is the Forum.

5. To treat cruelly and unfairly. Christians refused to worship empires.

6. A member of the upper class. The citizens of the Roman Republic were divided into social classes.

7. A person making a complaint against another in a court. They can put rules for trial.

10. A brief story that teaches a moral lesson. Jesus began to teach love of God and to others.