

Ancient Rome Vocabulary and people

Across

1. a ruler with total power over a country, typically one who has obtained power by force

3. a system of money in general use in a particular country

7. a constitutional right to reject a decision or proposal made by a law-making body

10. a group of three powerful or notable people or things existing in relation to each other

11. a member of the lower social classes

12. were a series of three wars fought between Rome and Carthage from 264 BC to 146 BC

Down

2. an aristocrat or nobleman

4. a native of ancient Etruria

5. a state in which supreme power is held by people and their elected representatives and which has an elected or nominated president rather than a monarch.

6. an official appointed by a government to live in a foreign city

8. an artificial channel for conveying water, typically in the form of a bridge across a valley or other gap

9. an official in ancient Rome chosen by the plebeians to protect their interests