

Name: _____

Date: _____

Animal Behavior

- | | |
|--|----------------|
| 1. An area occupied by a group or individual. | A. Parenting |
| 2. The way in which someone acts. | B. Behavior |
| 3. Behavior that develops without depending on learning or experience | C. Territory |
| 4. A behavior that develops through experience or from observing actions. | D. Stimulus |
| 5. A seasonal movement from one place to another | E. Hibernation |
| 6. Information or change that causes a response or reaction | F. Innate |
| 7. A period of inactivity and decreased body temperatures in the winter. | G. Courtship |
| 8. Helping their young to survive. | H. Learned |
| 9. A period of inactivity experienced during hot and dry summers. | I. Migration |
| 10. Bright colors and complex calls of animals are used to help find a mate. | J. Estivation |