

Animal Health Terminology

Across

- 2. A certain type of head restraining device for horses, much like a halter; used for handling horses that have not yet been fully broken.
- 6. The innermost layer of an embryo
- 8. A physiological 24-hour cycle
- 10. Necrosis of a body part that can be attributed to poor circulation

11. A picture of the chromosomes in any given cell as they are arranged in twos

12. A type of device that spreads milk out in order to let it cool

Down

- 1. indicates that something has no bacteria in it.
- 3. Another word for the border between something
- 4. A substance that affects the way that the muscles contract

5. A particularly slow breathing rate; ends in the letter a

7. visible presence of blood. Examples include fresh blood in vomit, urine, or feces, or blood that is found on the examiners hand upon examining an internal or external wound.

9. A term used for a horse that is not taking well to training and lacks sense