

Name: _____ Date: _____

Animal Intelligence

1. The ability to solve mathematical problems is called _____ - mathematical intelligence. A. jar
2. Communicative ability is called verbal- B. calls
3. The ability to observe the world with the mind's eye is called _____-intelligence C. chimpanzee
4. The ability to identify and manage emotions is called _____intelligence D. the elephant
5. Animal intelligence is the ability to live in and _____to their specific environments E. empathy
6. One of the world's smartest invertebrates F. memory
7. Octopuses have a good short and long term G. crows
8. Octopuses can carry out complex tasks like opening a _____ H. octopus
9. To protect itself from predators an octopus can _____other species I. compassion
10. Dolphins pass on their knowledge to others with distinct J. linguistic
11. An animal that uses different kinds of tools like sticks is the K. a pig
12. Which animal might have the same intelligence as a three year old child? L. altruism
13. Which animal has excellent memory and solves complex problems, and impersonates human voices. M. spatial
14. This animal has the largest brain of all land animals N. impersonate/mimic
15. The elephant can express a wide range of emotions such as happiness and O. adapt
16. The elephant's memory is even greater than humans so we say an elephant never P. the parrot
17. Elephants can display acts of self awareness and Q. logical
18. What bird is capable of constructing tools, using them and saving them for future use? R. rats
19. This animal dreams like humans, use sensorial cues and make their way out of complex mazes S. forgets

20. Rats can have high levels of _____ making sacrifices for other members of their species

T. emotional