

Annalia Santos 16

Across

2. The withdrawal of American troops from Vietnam, while ARVN claims South Vietnam.
 6. Young men deployed into the military.
 8. The idea that politics should be defined by concrete interests rather than abstract ideologies.
 11. The other group, which were mainly pacifists, civil leaders, and students who used strategy.
 12. The conservative war group under Johnson's idea of domino theory.
 15. A postponing for being in the military for boys in school or certain jobs.
 16. A resolution that allowed the President to use any force to prevent America from being attacked.

18. Replaces former diplomatic efforts based on suspicion and distrust.

19. If Vietnam fell to communism, so would its neighbors.

20. A leaked history of American involvement in Vietnam.

Down

1. The restriction of the President's war-making powers signed by Congress in 1973.
 3. The village where U.S. troops were told to open fire on four to five hundred innocent Vietnamese villagers.
 4. The U.S., South Vietnam, North Vietnam, and the Vietcong agreeing to cease fire and withdraw U.S. troops.
 5. Large, exploding cans of gasoline that quickly spread fires.

7. The most important voice demanding independence for Vietnam.

9. A communist rebellion group in South Vietnam.

10. The campus where four college students were killed by the National Guard.

13. An attack on 36 U.S. capitals and 5 major cities in Vietnam, conducted by Communists.

14. The treaty that froze the deploying of intercontinental ballistic missiles.

17. Like NATO, it retained communism from spreading in Southeast Asia.