

Anthropology Crossword

Across

5. Study of the evolution of human species and of the diverse cultures that make up humanity.
6. Organisms inherit their characteristics from their parents.
10. A socio-cultural construct that classifies humans based on physical traits but does not exist scientifically.
12. To compare similarities and differences in language to understand how languages are related.
14. Study of how sounds are put together to make meaning.
15. the remains of bodies and bones as well as rocks.

16. Every action, belief or relation in a culture serves a function to satisfy the needs of people in that culture.

Down

1. The physical similarities and differences between different human populations.
2. The idea that you cannot compare two cultures because each has its own rules.
3. Study of how people use language within culture to express status and context.
4. The study of culture of living people across the world.

7. The belief that one culture is better than another.

8. A chemical product that helps skin protect itself against UV rays which are responsible for skin pigmentation.

9. The way of living, customs and beliefs of a group of people during a specific period of time.

11. The study of human language, how language affects and expresses culture.

13. The study of Primates (apes) and their behavior compared to human behavior