

Antiemetics

Across

- 3. Which therapeutic medication class would the nurse expect to administer to a patient experiencing post op nausea and vomiting or a patient experiencing nausea related to chemotherapy?
- 8. Which antiemetic is the choice medication for a client who is 9 years old and experiencing nausea and vomiting?
- 9. The nurse giving discharge instructions knows teaching was effective when the patient states they will allow which antiemetic to dissolve on their tongue before swallowing?
- 10. An 18-month-old is admitted to the ED with continued vomiting and fever, the nurse knows that which antiemetic is contraindicated for this patient?

Down

- 1. The nurse administering promethazine to the patient with BPH should consider which potential adverse effect of the medication?

- 2. The nurse providing teaching to the patient prescribed prochlorperazine knows to educate the patient about the need to avoid sun exposure due to which possible side effect?
- 4. The student nurse demonstrates an understanding when identifying which of the following as potential root words for antiemetics? olol, mycin, setron, ase, azine
- 5. The nurse knows that all of the following are used as antiemetic medications except for: Ondansetron, Chlorpromazine, Aprepitant, Promethazine, Carbamazepine, Metoclopramide
- 6. The nurse understands that a common complication of ondansetron is constipation. The nurse should add which priority assessment into the plan of care?
- 7. Which non-pharmacological antiemetic would the nurse anticipate administering to a pregnant client experiencing nausea?