

Ap English Vocab

Across

2. use of corresponding successive verbal constructions

6. writer asks a question and then immediately answers it

9. a literary device that makes its characteristics more prominent than they actually are

10. a list

11. comparison using "like" or "as"

12. repetition of the first part of a sentence

13. several coordinating conjunctions are used

Down

1. comparison between two things that are unrelated but that share common characteristics

3. a question that is asked with no real answer expected

4. extending a sentence or phrase in order to further explain, emphasize, or exaggerate

5. the speaker or writer breaks off abruptly

7. elimination of conjunctions between phrases

8. rhetorical device that uses reversed structure of phrases to produce artistic effect