

Apostle's Creed & Nicene Creed

Across

4. ability to think and act using knowledge, experience, understanding.

6. one of the three theological virtues of the Christian religion, alongside faith and love.

8. a concept of moral rightness based on ethics, rationality, law, natural law, religion, or equity.

10. the ability to comprehend something.

11. a gesture indicative of deep respect.

12. strength of mind that enables a person to encounter danger or bear pain or adversity with courage.

Down

1. caution or circumspection as to danger or risk.

2. asking God for support and faith to make right decisions.

3. one of the three theological virtues of the Christian religion, alongside faith and hope.

5. moderation in action, thought, or feeling.

7. bravery in facing difficulties, especially in overcoming the fear of consequences.

9. one of the three theological virtues of the Christian religion, alongside hope and love.