

Apple ID

Across

- 3. _____ secures your Apple ID account by establishing "trusted" devices. To "trust" a device, you must enter a validation code that Apple sends to another trusted device.
- 5. _____ allows families to share iTunes Store, iBooks Store, and App Store purchases. Shared content must have licensing that allows sharing.
- 7. At appleid.apple.com, you can generate a _____ as an AppleCare identity-verification method.
- 10. In the context of Apple ID training, a _____ is any Apple product that has an operating system.
- 11. An _____ is a personal account that you use to access Apple services.
- 14. _____ is a Find My [device] feature that remotely erases a device.

- 15. A _____ is an email message that Apple sends you to confirm that you can access a particular email address.
 - 16. _____ is an Apple service that hosts files and apps
 - 17. You use the _____ to manage your Apple ID account. Clicking "Forgot Apple ID or password?"
 - 18. _____ is an Apple service that allows you to track your devices. If you lose a device, you can perform several actions using Find My [device].
 - 19. A _____ is the adult in a Family Sharing group who agrees to pay for purchases that other family members make. Family Sharing requires a family organizer.
- Down
- 1. If you lose your iOS device, the Find My [iOS device] service offers _____, which prevents others from using your iOS device.

- 2. _____ is a feature of Find My [device]. Turning on _____ locks your device with a passcode so others can't access your personal information.
- 4. A _____ is one from which Apple has received a reply to a verification email.
- 6. _____ your Apple ID account. With _____, a time-sensitive code is sent to your SMS-capable device.
- 8. If you forget your Apple ID security questions, Apple sends an email message to your _____.
- 9. Apple uses _____ with user-defined answers—to help verify the identity of anyone trying to access an Apple ID account.
- 12. Your _____ address associated with your Apple ID account.
- 13. The _____ provides Advisors Apple ID account-management tools, including ownership verification.