

Name: _____

Date: _____

Appreciating Children's Creative Work in Diverse Families and Communities

Across

9. wisdom about the self that leads to self knowledge and personal growth

10. intelligence in dealing with human interaction and perceptivity about how to resolve social problems

11. to be committed to the idea that all children have creative potential and participation in the arts is for everyone-- not only for individuals with stunning talent or family wealth

12. "the ability to solve problems, or to fashion products that are of consequence in particular cultural setting or community" -Howard Gardner

Down

1. intelligence having to do with adapting to and learning about the physical environment

2. intelligence with words and language

3. "the mind's eyes", to work with images and see their interrelationships

4. intelligence with sequential thinking and numerical reasoning ability

5. providing art supplies, encouraging children's problem solving efforts, attending their performances at school, or acknowledging their achievements

6. wisdom about one's own body and it's movements

7. these individuals raise questions of significance and grapple with ethical considerations effectively

8. intelligence having to do with sound patterns, mastery of musical notation, and musical talent