

Name: _____

Date: _____

Archaeology

Across

2. How a society acquires its food is called a _____ pattern.

7. Objects deliberately shaped by humans or their ancestors.

8. Earliest stone tool tradition

9. Old stone age

11. By-products of human activity such as plant seeds or animal bones linked to human consumption

12. Lived in what is now Israel and Jordan between 10,200 and 12,500 years ago.

13. Immovable remains of material culture.

Down

1. Dating techniques used to determine how old something is in relation to something else.

3. An evolutionary process whereby humans modify the genetic makeup of plants or animals.

4. The study of human culture by analyzing material remains people leave behind

5. Broad spectrum collection developed in the _____ period.

6. The _____ period is characterized by a shift from foraging to food production.

10. Dating techniques used to determine the specific age of a fossil/rock/artifact