

Name: _____

Argument Paper/Literature Elements

Across

- 5. tying up loose ends and bringing the story to a good ending place
- 7. Where you find information to give your argument strength
- 8. Your main argument
- 9. the beginning of a story where we meet characters and build setting
- 13. Proof
- 16. The main character of a story

Down

- 1. creating a feeling of excitement or nervousness about what will happen next
- 2. Where and when a story takes place
- 3. Similar writing, where you convince someone based on opinions
- 4. How to tie your argument and proof together at the end
- 6. the "bad guy" in a story, creates whatever problem the main character has to react to

10. The events that happen in a story

11. A story element that shows up many times

12. You should give this to teachers/adults because they are trying to help you be a better person

14. turning point or biggest moment of action

15. the middle part of your argument, where you show your proof