

Name: _____

Date: _____

Argument crossword

Across

- 2. An attempt to relate two or more ideas which are not related
- 6. Basing an argument on only two alternatives when others are possible
- 9. Everyone is in support
- 11. Three part argument- general premise, secondary premise, conclusion
- 15. Something used to distract attention from the real issue
- 16. Changing a meaning of a word, error in definition or evading through language

18. Presenting a premise as if it were fact when it is debatable

- 19. Emotional link to a person not concept
- 20. One bad thing will lead to another

Down

- 1. Loaded language or verbiage
- 3. Designed to appeal to flattery, pity or fear
- 4. Trying to provide a simple solution to a complex problem
- 5. Argument through faulty use of definition

7. Using an analogy as if it were proof when it is merely an example

- 8. Basing a conclusion on too little evidence
- 10. A person infers a conclusion from one or more premises
- 12. Going from specific examples to general conclusion
- 13. The assumption that an earlier event causes a later event
- 14. Attacking a person's motive or character instead of his/her argument
- 17. Reduce complex issues to black and white choices

Word Bank

- |                    |                    |                      |             |
|--------------------|--------------------|----------------------|-------------|
| Either/or          | False dilemma      | Hasty generalization | Plain folks |
| Oversimplification | Inductive          | Band wagon           | Post hoc    |
| Equivocation       | Slippery slope     | Begging the question | Testimonial |
| Bias language      | Ad hominem         | Non sequitur         | Deductive   |
| False analogy      | Circular reasoning | Syllogism            | Red herring |