

Argumentation Vocabulary Review, Part 1

Across

- 3. This goes at the end of an argumentative essay and restates the claim and its major supporting reasons
- 7. Another word for agreeing with or confirming a claim; the opposite of "refute".
- 9. A claim should not be a fact; it is an _____.
- 10. A case someone presents to prove a point; also a dispute between two people
- 11. Information that proves a point or confirms an argument

- 12. The first part of an introduction paragraph; it catches the reader's interest.
- 13. Another word for "oppose" or "disagree"; the opposite of supporting a claim
- 14. Another word for "reason", as in the reason a claim is correct or valid.

Down

- 1. This is normally something your opposition would say to try to beat your argument
- 2. This is the MAIN IDEA of an argument.

- 4. Another word for the text or other media you get your evidence from.
- 5. This is what you include in an argument to overcome a counterargument.
- 6. The act of finding reasons and evidence to support your claim.
- 8. This is a school-related topic we spent most of December researching and forming claims about.