

Articles of Confederation

Across

- 2. The first plan of government for the United States of America
- 3. In May 1787, representatives from each state were called to _____ for a meeting to revise the Articles of Confederation.
- 5. A steady rise in prices that occurs as money loses value and things cost more
- 6. The Articles of Confederation did not set up an _____ branch, so there was no President.
- 8. The Northwest Ordinance of 1787 said that a territory could ask to become a state when its _____ reached 60,000 adult free males.

- 9. Angry farmer who led a group of men to attack one of the national government's weapons armory.
- 13. The land north of the Ohio River that was awarded to the United States in the Treaty of Paris
- 15. Congress could not pass laws to collect _____; it could only ask states to offer money.
- 16. The United States had no national _____: instead, each state loaned its troops to protect the country.

Down

- 1. Under the Articles, the only branch of the national government was Congress, which was a _____ branch (that passed laws).

- 4. A group called the _____ wanted a stronger national government.
- 7. _____ was against the law in the Northwest Territory.
- 10. For new national laws to pass, at least _____ out of the thirteen states had to vote for it.
- 11. The Northwest Ordinance of 1787 described how the lands of the Northwest Territory could become _____.
- 12. The new plan gave _____ more power than the central government.
- 14. All 13 states had to _____, or approve, the Articles of Confederation.

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|-------------------------|--------------------|------------|--------------|
| states | executive | taxes | Philadelphia |
| nationalists | slavery | population | legislative |
| inflation | DanielShays | states | ratify |
| ArticlesofConfederation | NorthwestTerritory | nine | army |