

Assessment for Social Studies

Across

2. A test where you must choose from multiple choices.
 3. Subject that includes dance, drama, and songs.
 6. Each student has their own folder for storing important information.
 10. A conference that meets with the parents to discuss their child's progress.
 12. Ongoing summaries of students learning and individual thoughts.
 13. A written product...

14. Anecdotal Records can be written on...

16. Type of assessment that makes judgements.
 17. Rating scales are called...
 19. A non written product...
 20. A list that can be marked off once achieved.

Down

1. A type of assessment where it's interactive with theatre, drama, writing, and speaking.
 4. A form specifically for recording students achievements and progress.

5. A student could create this to show what they have learned.

7. A type of geographical feature...
 8. Content objectives are used for successful...
 9. A type of assessment that helps students be successful in achievements.
 11. A simple illustration to get an idea across.
 15. Used for performing arts presentations.
 18. A way to remember something or gather information.