

Assessment of Social Studies Learning

Across

3. conversations with student about progress
4. serve as sources of data for determining student achievement
6. ongoing summaries of what students think they have learned
8. authentic assessment
9. a place of storage to compile a sample of students' achievements
12. criteria by which behaviors, beliefs, and attitudes are judged
13. objectives for the unit's lesson and activities

15. brief descriptions of noteworthy events written about students over time
16. the process of helping students achieve more
18. the process of making judgments
19. combination of writing, the arts, charts, and speaking
20. drama, dance, song used to provide useful information for assessment

Down

1. activities that express what a student knows through speaking, making charts, graphs, or producing art

2. a yes/no record of information about student achievement
5. accompany simple illustrations
7. a form of reporting students' progress
10. drawn representations to assess our students' knowledge of geographic features
11. a scale with written descriptors to categorize student performance
14. essay that persuades the reader
17. the process of gathering, analyzing, and sharing information on the ability and achievement of students