

August Vocab Words

Across

- 3. Discrete information, facts, data and specific knowledge offered to describe, explain or justify something.
- 8. This is an object, person, color, character or figure used to represent abstract ideas.
- 11. Where future events in the story or perhaps the outcome, are suggested by the author before they happen.
- 12. The attitude a writer has towards what they are writing about. Shown through word choice, style and opinion.
- 13. The discussion of an opinion about something or set of notes or explanations about something.

Down

- 1. A short statement, usually one sentence, that summarizes the main point or claim of an essay or paper.
- 2. The main universal idea or message conveyed by story.
- 4. Mini essays that explain the information about a topic in a concise way that include analysis with textual evidence.
- 5. A reference in a work of literature to something outside the work, especially to a well known historical or literary event, person, or work.

6. Meaning of a word or phrase that is uncertain and or does not have a clear meaning.

7. The sensory details and images evoked by the words of the story.

9. The general sense or feeling the reader is supposed to get from the story. It doesn't referred to the characteristics state of mind.

10. A character who is meant to represent characteristics, values or ideas which are opposite to another character.

Word Bank

Theme
Allusion
Imagery
Ambiguity

Tone
Foreshadowing
Symbolism

Foil
Concrete detail
Mood

Commentary
Thesis statement
Microtheme