

Australia and New Zealand Vocabulary

Across

4. International government organization that aims to increase cooperation between and represent the interests of Pacific countries.
5. Original inhabitants of New Zealand and the Cook Islands.
8. An agreement intended to form a free-trade area among member nations.
11. Long term, significant change to a region's average weather.
12. Sudden, violent overthrow of a government.
14. Theory that explains how huge blocks of Earth's crust move.

15. The use of resources to create new products.

17. Formation of rock-like material made up of skeletons of tiny sea creatures.

19. People sent to another country by a church to spread its religious beliefs.

20. Farming with little left over to sell.

Down

1. A sparsely inhabited region of low plateaus and plains.

2. Process by which one group takes on the cultural traits of another.

3. The collection of resources from nature.

6. People native to a region.

7. Attitude that one's own social or cultural group is better than all other's.

9. A powerful explosive device that can cause widespread destruction.

10. Ring-shaped coral island enclosing a body of water.

13. Dried coconut meat.

16. Original inhabitants of Australia.

18. Long period of extremely dry weather.