

Australia's Homefront p. 504 - 514

Across

- 1. The Militia Bill, signed in 1943, enabled
- 6. By 1942 Australia looked to this nation for much support
- 8. Institutions such as the _____ church did not always support women in work
- 11. The Womans _____ Army was formed in 1942
- 12. Australia's Wartime Prime Minister
- 13. The US army segreagated Black and _____ soldiers

- 14. This was process of managing supplies was essential to the war effort
 - 15. Recent immigrants were often locked up in theses camps
 - 16. The commander of Allied troops in teh South Pacific was General Douglas
- Down
- 2. Sandakan was on the Island of
 - 3. The _____ roles of women changed with the coming of war

- 4. The government used their powers to enforce _____ to produce war goods
- 5. This was done to help conserve resources
- 7. Despite doing teh same job, women were typically _____ less than men
- 9. Loose lips sink _____ was a slogan used to protect security
- 10. The first Australian military service group to enlist women