

Name: _____ Date: _____

BOTTLE-FEEDING

1. How many weeks should teats/pacifiers be avoided to prevent nipple confusion in an exclusively breastfed infant?
A. Two.
2. This is a risk associated with Bottle Feeding
B. Four - six.
3. Bottles and Formula are located away from
C. Public areas.
4. Alternating the arm used to hold baby during feeds helps
D. Otitis media.
5. According to the WHO guidelines, any feed that has not been consumed within hours should be discarded.
E. Visual development.
6. Infants with this condition should require specialised formula.
F. HSV-1
7. This condition may require breastfeeding be avoided temporarily
G. Twenty-four.
8. How many hours can powdered infant formula be stored in the fridge
H. Classic Galactosemia.
9. Safe preparation of powdered infant formula aims to reduce the risk of...
I. mother's own room
10. Where is a demonstration on preparation of infant formula conducted?
J. bacterial contamination.