

Name: _____

Back to Basics - Haematology Crossword

Across

4. Which red cell precursor can be raised in Haemolytic anaemia?
6. DAWN INR's are used to monitor patients on which medication?
8. Which commonly known drug causes a raised APTT ratio?
9. What is the clinical term for a raised lymphocyte count?
10. Abnormal HbA1c chromatograms could indicate what? A Haemoglobin _____
11. What is the clinical term for a low platelet count?

Down

1. What is the principle of analysis for both the G8 and G11 analysers? High _____ Liquid Chromatography.
2. In antenatal screening, what does the HBOP screen for?
3. Which white cell is raised as a result of an allergic reaction?
5. Which disease is associated with a Factor IX deficiency? _____ disease
7. What test is used for monitoring type 2 diabetes?

Word Bank

- | | | |
|---------------|------------------|-------------------|
| Reticulocyte | Heparin | Haemoglobinopathy |
| Christmas | Performance | Eosinophil |
| HbA1c | Thrombocytopenia | Warfarin |
| Lymphocytosis | Variant | |