

Name: _____

Date: _____

Banking crossword

Across

2. a bill or coin that can be exchanged for an item of value

6. A copy of something represented as the real thing

7. a system that determines how much gold each paper note represents

11. common measure of what something is worth or what it costs

13. an exchange for a good or service

15. the exchange of money for a good or service

16. has value because of the government

17. can be saved, or stored, to use at a future date

18. rate that banks give to their best customers

19. remaining funds

20. deposits kept back in reserves

21. anything with value that is accepted in return for goods or services

22. Anything that is useful or has value

23. requires banks to reserve a fraction of their money

24. the units in which currency is available

Down

1. something of perceived value used a payment

3. increase in deposits

4. want something another person is offering

5. allows government but not individuals to redeem US dollars for gold

8. information for a collection of data

9. Money can be divided into smaller units

10. cost to borrow money

12. total amount of money available at a given time

14. money accepted to pay debts or purchase goods