

Behaviour Modification

Across

2. Child throwing tantrums gets attention from teacher. Teacher realizes child enjoys the attention received, so child's tantrums continue. This is an example of _____.

7. _____

_____ involves removing something unpleasant to motivate children to complete a task or behave a certain way.

9. Skinner's is known for his work on _____.

10. Skinner believed one could be _____ through punishments and reinforcements

Down

1. Using cause and effect to influence someone's behaviour is called _____.

3. _____ involves giving children rewards for good behaviour.

4. Taking away a privilege until a child behaves in a desirable manner is an example of a _____.

5. It is important to not reward behaviour you do not want to be _____.

6. Behaviour modification is based on what scientist's work?

8. A behaviour is likely to be repeated if it is _____.