

Name: _____

Date: _____

Bell Pettigrew Museum

Across

1. Phylum containing around 100 species of small transparent worms
3. The largest living Arthropod
5. Condition found in some birds often those that do not move long distances in search of food
7. What is the subphylum of Unirama
14. The final name in the Scientific naming system of the Animal Kingdom
15. Large flightless pigeon that inhabited the island of Mauritius
16. This specimen was donated to the museum in 1873 by James Farmer
19. This urchin was found in the West Indies
22. The scientific name for The Shipworm
24. Phacochoerus aethiopicus is the scientific name of what animal?
27. Shells that bore into wood and rock
29. Another name for Macqueen's Bustard

30. Professor of Medicine and Anatomy 1875-1908

31. Book written by Professor Bell Pettigrew describing and illustrating many flying animals
32. The smallest of the cetaceans
33. Sponge that was unknown to science until 1841

Down

2. The scientific name from the Fluted Great Clam
4. The scientific name for Chimpanzee
6. The scientific name for the Owl Parrot
8. Phylum who's members bodies have 14-43 pairs of short claw-tipped legs
9. Orthorhynchus anatinus is the scientific name for what animal
10. This colourful insect comes from Australia. What is its Scientific name
11. The scientific name for the False Killer Whale

12. Professor who excavated Devonian Sandstone with fish fossils in Dura Den 1836

13. Mandrillus sphinx is the scientific name for what animal
17. The largest penguin
18. This phylum's three families include Horses, Tapers, and Rhinoceroses
20. Dromaius Novae-Hollandiae is the scientific name for what animal
21. Demonstrated that the DNA molecule runs continuously from one end of the chromosome to the other
23. Went fully extinct in 1936
25. This crustation was found in Sagami Bay Japan
26. Make floating nests of plant material concealed among reeds
28. The largest egg relative to the size of the bird who laid it