

Name: _____

Date: _____

Beowulf Crossword

Across

- 3. Equipment in general, apparel, attire, dress, articles or dress. Armour
5. To deal or traffic in
8. An unauthorized trader; one who trespasses on the rights or privileges of any trade monopoly to a ship engaged in unauthorized trading
11. To take a make use of. To save and collect for recycling or repurposing

Down

- 1. Action of uttering with the voice; vocal expression of something speaking, speech
2. In ancient Teutonic and Old English law, the price set upon a man according to his rank, paid by way of compensation or fine in cases of homicide and certain other crimes to free the offender from further obligation or punishment

- 4. Something unwelcome or unpleasant: flourishing or spreading unchecked; unrestrained, or running wild.
6. The principle, power, or agency by which events predetermined; fate, destiny. Magical power, enchantment
7. Active hatred or or enmity, hostility, ill- will 9. To make raid for the purpose of plundering. Also (rarely) with on, upon. To go about in a menacing or predatory manner.
10. Knowing, wise; judicious, prudent, wary, cautious. Cautious and careful in worldly or business matters; worldly-wise, shrewd