

Between the Notes

Across

1. Mr. Cook was _____ for giving detention. (famous or well known for something bad or good)

3. Mr. Eli called us all to attention and launched into a _____ on Shakespeare.

8. Walk in a slow relaxed manner

10. He articulated the word like he was trying to sound

_____. (of or relating to the aristocracy)

11. But Lennie was everywhere. Grinning, leering, sneering, _____ out of nowhere-like my own personal Cheshire cat.

12. wondering around randomly

13. As he gunned the Jeep's engine again and drove off, stirring up a cloud of dust that _____ at my feet

14. While my stage only reached _____ proportions when I was standing on an actual stage.

15. something pledged as security for repayment of a loan, to be forfeited in the event of a default.

Down

2. I took him to the playground and he slid down the slide about 800 times. The _____ of it would drive most people crazy.

4. make (attitudes or behavior) part of one's nature by learning or unconscious assimilation.

5. squeeze or twist something to force liquid from it

6. Not logical or reasonable.

7. Centuries of saving, stealing from their victims. It's all very _____. (producing a great deal of profit)

9. I know some girls fed gossip to Willow and Wynn, to avoid being targets-a _____ strike of sorts.