

Bio

Across

2. These are the simplest cells.

4. In Domain Eukarya there are 4 Kingdoms, Protista, Plantae, _____ and Animalia.

10. Having the same relation, relative position or structure is called _____.

13. A _____ is a diagram that depicts evolutionary relationships among groups.

15. This is the process which different kinds of living organisms are thought to have developed and diversified from earlier forms.

17. This term refers to the stability of internal conditions.

18. Carolus _____ is known as the Father of Taxonomy.

19. This is the basic unit of life.

20. This is the study of evolutionary relationships.

Down

1. _____ cannot make their own food.

3. This is the science of classification.

5. Humans belong to the kingdom _____.

6. _____ is the study of all living things

7. Living things are called _____.

8. Binomial _____ is a two word naming system for classification.

9. More complex cells are called _____.

11. A _____ key is a tool that allows the user to determine the identity of items in the natural world.

12. A single parent organism reproducing identical offspring by itself is called _____ reproduction.

14. This is the process of building up complex substances from simpler substances.

16. This carries hereditary information.