

Biodiversity

Across

5. organisms that can reproduce together to make babies are members of the same_____.

9. One organisms benefits and the other is not hurt or helped

11. Both organism benefit from this type of relationship

12. When one organisms consumes another organism

13. organisms that interact together have a _____relationship

14. organisms of the same species living in the same place at the same time

Down

1. one organism benefits while the other is harmed or killed

2. the maximum number of members of a species that can be supported by the abiotic resources in that area

3. a species of an animal or plant that is seriously at risk of extinction

4. Organisms that compete against each other to survive are in this symbiotic relationship

6. different populations living and interacting with each other

7. the variety of species in a certain ecosystem

8. an environment made up of living and nonliving things interacting together

10. an animal that kills and eats other animals