

Name: _____

Date: _____

Biology

Across

- 3. The fastest growing tissue in the body.
- 4. How are the stem cells found in amniotic fluid and in the umbilical cord blood called?
- 5. In organisms called ____, DNA is found inside a special area of the cell called the nucleus.
- 9. The syndrome of the so-called Elephant Man, who had overgrown bones, skin and other such tissues.
- 11. There are viral infections linked to several types of cancer, among which there is Burkitt's ____.
- 12. The most efficient drug type used to treat bacterial infections.
- 15. The rarest genetic disorder.

- 16. The process of skeletal muscles beginning to shake in small movements, creating warmth by expending energy.
- 17. A mosquito-borne disease that can cause fever and vomiting, specific to tropical and subtropical regions.

Down

- 1. The virus that infects bacteria is called ____.
- 2. A uterus type that is heart-shaped and is prone to miscarriage and premature birth.
- 6. An incurable chronic disease where the immune system produces antibodies that attack healthy cells and tissue, which then causes inflammation, pain, and damage.
- 7. When it comes to bacterial viruses, the ____ cycle consists of the destruction of the infected cell and its membrane.

- 8. Technically, the brain itself cannot feel ____.
- 10. The largest organ of the body.
- 13. The only part of the body with no blood supply.
- 14. A disease that uses human proteins to infect cells.
- 18. A chemical which the cell uses for energy; it is created through cellular respiration.