

Name: _____

Biology

Across

- 2. a group of interacting populations
- 6. how the organism uses the environment to live in an environment
- 7. many organisms of one species
- 9. everything in the environment
- 10. when an organism is benefited and the other organism is neither helped or harmed

- 12. when an organism benefits at the expense of another organism
- 13. the study of relationships and interactions of the environment
- 14. the entire planet
- 15. an area where an organism lives

Down

- 1. when two different organisms live close together and benefit from one another

- 3. how non living things are used by living things
- 4. how living things are used by other living things
- 5. a large group of ecosystem
- 8. the act of pursuing and consuming another organism for food
- 11. when two or more species live together