

Biology crossword puzzle online

Across

3. The movement of individuals into a population from another population.

8. The movement of individuals out of a population and into another population.

9. a generalized diagram showing the number of surviving members over time from a measured set of births.

10. The factor that has the greatest effect in keeping down the size of a population.

11. A close ecological relationship between two or more organisms of different species that live in direct contact with one another.

13. the establishment and development of an ecosystem in an area that was previously uninhabited area.

16. A relationship similar to predation in that one organism benefits while the other is harmed.

Down

1. The way in which individuals of a population are spread in an area or a volume.

2. A measurement of the number of individual living in a defined space.

4. an environment is the maximum number of individuals of a particular species that the environment can normally and consistently support.

5. A dramatic decline in the size of a population over a short period of time.

6. The first organisms that live in a previously uninhabited area.

7. A relationship between two organisms in which one receives an ecological benefit from the other.

12. An interspecies interaction in which both organisms benefit from one another.

14. The sequence of biotic changes that regenerate a damaged community.

15. Can be described as all of the abiotic and biotic factors in the area where an organism lives.