

Name: _____

Date: _____

Biology

Across

4. part of earth where all life exists, including land, water and air
7. group of similar ecosystems with the same general type of physical environment
9. a structure composed of more than one type of tissue that performs a particular function
10. all the populations of different organism in a different given area and not including the nonliving things
11. a group of organs that work together to do a certain job

Down

1. all the organisms of the same species that live in the same general area
2. a group of organisms consisting of similar individuals that are capable of interbreeding and producing offspring that can also reproduce
3. a group of similar cells that work together to perform a specific function in an organism
5. all the different populations of organisms in a given area and the nonliving environment such as rivers and mountains
6. the basic unit of a chemical element that has the characteristics of that element
8. an individual living thing