

Name: _____

Biome Project_Crossword_Part 2

Across

1. The African Wild Cat is an _____ species of wild cats
6. human persecution and habitat destruction led to its _____

8. They live on the fringes of open sand desert , in the _____ of West Africa,

10. Honey badgers are able to feed on tortoises because of their _____

12. on a honey badger something is thick and very elastic

13. what type of corpses have honey badgers been known to dig up?

14. riverine rabbits are found along seasonal rivers in the _____ Desert

15. at night they are firm but during the day they are soft

Down

2. They are nocturnal, spending the night feeding on plants and hiding from predators

3. they are widespread throughout Africa, but absent from the tropical rainforests and Sahara Desert

4. • The main threat to the African Wild Cats is _____ with domestic and feral cats.

5. the riverine rabbit is listed as being critically _____ on the ICUN list

7. Riverine rabbits are _____-specific and are found in dense patches of riverine bush

9. They live mainly in dry areas but are also found in forests and grasslands.

11. Honey badger is an _____ (eats plant- and meat-based diet)