

Biomedical Career Crossword

Across

1. What profession captures images of aquatic life?
4. What profession ensures that the standards of quality are consistently met?
6. What profession studies algae?
12. What profession includes the studying of shape, size, and position of various parts of an organism?
17. What profession studies soil as a natural research, including its biological properties and classification?
19. What profession studies the properties, such as chemical and physical, of inland bodies of water?
20. What profession studies the microscopic anatomy of cells and tissues of an organism?
21. What profession studies genetics?
22. What profession balances the needs of humans with the needs of animals or other organisms in the wild?

23. What profession studies human movement?

24. What profession creates, implements, and defends laws and regulations relating to the effects of human activity on the natural environment?

25. What profession gathers and studies information to understand events that have occurred in the past?

Down

2. What profession studies atomic and molecular structures of crystals made from organic matter?
3. What profession studies structure, classification, and evolution of viruses and virus-like agents?
5. What profession uses available data from known theories of biology in order to generate new theories?
7. What profession studies animals?

8. What profession includes the studying of Earth's biodiversity?

9. What profession includes the studying of the geographic distribution of organisms?

10. What profession studies birds?

11. What profession studies fish?

13. What profession conducts a variety of research for a specific university or establishment?

14. What profession judges, edits, and monitors research publications?

15. What profession includes studying the diagnosis, prevention, and of diseases of the mouth?

16. What profession studies animals?

18. What profession cares for individuals, families, and communities so that they may maintain or recover a healthy quality of life?