

Name: _____

Date: _____

Birds

Across

5. Thick bodies, short wings, and native to rainforests

6. Type of finch, small birds, and many color patterns

9. Native to Africa and Madagascar, nine species of parrot species Agapornis, and size ranges from 4-7 inches

10. Large birds, Native to South America, and average lengths are 33 inches

11. Originates from Central and South America, variety in colors, and size ranges from 9-12 inches

12. Native to South America, small, pocket parrots, and 4 to 5 inches in length

Down

1. Native to South America, small, and 10-11 inches long

2. Short red tail, grey in color, and highly intelligent

3. From South Pacific islands, males are green, females are red, and average lengths are 14 inches

4. closely related to cockatoos, native to Australia, and 12 inches long

7. Green plumage, green wings, long tapered tail, and heads are yellow with black line

8. Native to Australia, recognized for crests, and size varies from 12-26 inches