

Name: _____ Date: _____

BitCo Puzzle

1. How to check if you are covered by Fibre
 2. A signal that is generated from the router that your smart devices (TV's, Laptops, Smart Phones, Etc.) use to connect to the Internet.
 3. Telephone calls are made and received over the internet or through your Internet connection.
 4. The common term used to describe how fast your connection is.
 5. The amount of information that is shared between your device(s) and the internet and vice versa.
 6. Light technology to provide faster and more reliable Internet.
 7. Internet via a copper phone line. In order to connect to the internet, you would need to use the phone line.
 8. Wireless form of Internet that utilises a mobile network.
 9. Most popular Home Fibre speed BitCo sells
 10. Do I need a Router and is it included in the package?
 11. Slowing your speed down
 12. Usually occurs on heavy protocols such as torrenting, downloading and / or (excessive) streaming. This is done so that you can still enjoy the "full" speed of your Internet connection when browsing the web, emailing, chatting on social media and so on.
 13. Unlimited amount of data available to use.
 14. limited amount of data available to access the internet. The Internet Services Provider will set a maximum amount of data available to use. Once that amount is reached more data will need to be purchased.
 15. Taking something from your device and storing it on the internet / cloud, you are?
 16. When taking something from the internet and storing it on your device, you are?
- A. FREE TO USE Router
B. DSL
C. VoIP
D. LTE
E. Uncapped
F. WiFi
G. Fibre
H. 100 Mbps and 200 Mbps
I. Coverage Map
J. Throttling
K. Bandwidth
L. Data
M. Downloading
N. Shaping
O. Capped
P. Uploading