

Black History/ Women History Crossword puzzle

Across

2. She is the English author famous for stories of working-class families and, in her later years, compact historical novels. In 1972, she published her first book named "Harriet Said".
3. She has served as CEO of eBay and Hewlett Packard.
7. She is a famous women who was the first black women to receive a pilot license. Then she established a flight school for blacks.
12. He was an American singer, dancer, actor and comedian. The best known song form this singer is the song "What kind of fool am I."
13. She is an American educator who applied a strong and lasting influence on the academic. She was President of Wellesley College from 1881 to 1887.
14. She was an painter and she is best known for her spare, abstract all-over grid paintings. One of her paintings are called "Stars".
16. He is a world-famous chemist who made important agricultural discoveries and inventions.

17. He is a ship captain, merchant, and abolitionist. Paul Cuffe is best known for his work in assisting free blacks who wanted to emigrate to Sierra Leone.

19. She is an African American track runner. She became a world-record-holding Olympic champion and international sports icon in track and field following her successes in the 1956 and 1960 Olympic Games.

20. She is a rhythm and blue singer who is known for her powerful vocals and her athletic dancing. Her latest album was "All The Best" in 2004.

Down

1. She is an american educator and civil rights activist best known for starting a private school for African American students in Florida.
4. She is an American politician who ran for president against Trump. She became the first American first lady to ever win a public office seat.
5. He is a religious leader, and he is the founder of the Peace Mission movement. He was also known as "the Messenger" early in his life.

6. She is an opera director and conductor. She founded the Boston Opera Group, and later renamed the Opera Company of Boston.

8. He was a basketball player in the team Chicago Bulls in 1984.

9. She is an American professional tennis player who is currently ranked world No. 8 in the WTA singles rankings and she have a sister named Serena who is also a tennis player

10. She is a British anthropologist and she is famous for her work among the chimpanzees.

11. She is an actress and comedienne in the 1900s. She is best remembered for her starring role in television's I Love Lucy (1951-57).

15. She was an African American women abolitionist and women's civil rights activist. She was originally named Isabella. She was born in a slave.

18. American civil rights activist who helped shape the civil rights movement through his nonviolent activism and he served alongside Martin Luther King Jr.