

Name: _____

Date: _____

Bladder Cancer

Across

- 2. This is a type of hematuria that is only found when testing is done
- 4. The surgery required for urinary elimination following a cystectomy
- 5. Pain or difficult urination
- 7. The need to urinate several times, a common sign of bladder cancer
- 9. The site on the surface of the skin that leads to an organ in the body

- 10. The most common misdiagnosis of bladder cancer
- 12. The sudden urge to urinate, a common sign of bladder cancer
- 13. A major risk factor that if started younger, is more severe
- 14. The section of the small bowel that the ureters are implanted into during an ileal conduit surgery

Down

- 1. Chronic use of these may increase the risk of bladder cancer
- 3. The removal of the bladder, prostate, and seminal vesicles
- 6. Blood present in urine
- 8. Holistically, this is something that greatly changes after a cystectomy
- 11. This is a type of hematuria that is visible